Judge Sweeney Finds Man Guilty On Theft Charge

Wehrle D. Peppers, of San Francisco, was found guilty by Judge William J. Sweeney in Municipal court Friday, of two charges of grand theft.

The defendant was remanded to superior court and bail was set at $2,500 cash or $5,000 bond on each count.

Peppers was arraigned for preliminary hearing on a complaint signed by W. F. Brodie, who charged the defendant with stealing lumber valued at more than $200 from the Henry Doelger Co.

The complaint charged that on or about October 17, 1947, Peppers stole from the Henry Doelger Co. an amount of redwood rustic siding lumber valued in excess of $200. Frank Springer, an employee of the American Stevedore Co., was witness for the complainant.

This was the second of two similar complaints entered against Peppers. On October 10, 1947, the defendant, together with West Hollingworth and Otis Warren, also of San Francisco, was charged with stealing lumber from the Service Lumber Co. of San Francisco.

Leo Collins is attorney for the defense.

Two Pay Fines For Violating City Ord. No. 264

Two Daly City residents paid fines in Municipal court Friday for violating City Ordinance No. 264, which prohibits the use of alcoholics in and about an automobile.

Dr. John D. Walsh, 477 San Diego avenue, pleaded guilty to the charge and paid a fine of $50. Walsh was booked in the city jail November 17 after being found in an alleged intoxicated condition in his car, which was parked in a second lane with its motor running.

Walsh was released on $50 bail posted by his attorney, Nicholas Zoller, after causing noisy disturbances in his cell.

Walter LaVern Ford, 92 West Cavour street, was fined $25 when he pleaded guilty to a charge of being drunk in a parked car. In Ford's case, the ignition was turned off.

CREATIVE DRAMATICS OCCUPIES GIRLS OF SCOUT TROOP NO. 2

Work in creative dramatics occupied Girl Scouts of Troop No. Two last Thursday at their meeting at Mrs. Hamilton's home.

Production of plays was the object of the play-lesson, with each patrol devising a plot suggested by the contents of a paper bag. Patrol No. One presented a scene from "Old MacDonald Had a Farm," while Patrol No. Two enacted a "Poor Girl - Rich Girl" skit.

Jean Chamberlain, the troop's news scribe, reported on her activities.

Six-day Institute For Rec. Leaders Opens Next Monday

A six-day institute for the training of recreation leaders in civic, service and fraternal organizations throughout San Mateo county will be held at San Mateo Junior College starting next Monday.

The institute will continue for a period of two weeks, with classes on Monday, Tuesday and Thursday evenings. Such courses as craft work, music directing, social recreation, party planning, dramatics, dancing and art will be offered, as well as comprehensive instruction in such fields as Understanding the Community, Schools and Recreation, Therapeutic Value of Leisure Time Activities, Psychology of Youth and Youth Leadership, etc.

According to Elman Rose, Daly City recreation director and member of the institute planning committee, each course will be complete in itself, and all sessions will be integrated into one complete short course in recreation leadership.

The San Mateo County institute will be the 14th such course offered in California. Plans for the project were originated by George Hjelte, chairman of the Committee for the Study of Recreation in California, after a grant of funds for recreation had been made by the Rosenberg Foundation.

It will be conducted in cooperation with the county adult education committee. Carrie M. Brown, San Mateo director, will be chairman.

CROCKER P.T.A. PLAN CHILDREN'S XMAS PARTY

A program of dramatics, art displays and recitations in observance of Education Week featured the Wednesday meeting of the Crocker Parent-Teacher Association.

Miss Marjorie Tobias, scheduled speaker of the day, escorted the women to the school where they were entertained by the seventh graders with a skit entitled, "The Knave of Hearts."

Visual drawings and addresses on the topic, "Living in the San Francisco Bay Area," were other highlights of the program. Students' work was displayed throughout the afternoon.

Mrs. Nell Dorrance, school trustee, addressed the group at a brief business session. Final appointments were made for the December 5 bazaar in the Masonic temple.

Initial plans for a children's Christmas party were made at an executive board meeting Tuesday at Mrs. Edna Mullen's home. Sewing circle chairman requested that all articles for the bazaar be submitted not later than December 3.

Lions Fete Ladies Thursday Night At Annual Big Time

Stanford Hannah, high school principal and president of the Daly City - Colma Lions Club, was honored Thursday night at the organization's annual Ladies' Nite celebration in the Benjamin Franklin hotel at San Mateo.

The affair was a dinner dance, with Johnny Dell's five-piece orchestra providing music for dancing 'til the wee hours. Entertainment was provided by Dr. J. C. McGovern, telling witty dialect stories; Alpheus McGovern, playing the piano and singing; Joe Hernandez of Los Angeles, telling entertaining stories of the turf, and Gil O'Shaughnessy, playing the clarinet.

Ed Byrne, past president of the club, was responsible for arrangements. Carl Haas handled ticket sales.

At a Lions' meeting in Estrada's Spanish Kitchen Wednesday night, pictures of hydro-electric power were shown by Lloyd Ghiselli of the Pacific Gas and Electric Co. The speaker was introduced by Ernie Rutter.

Handcraft Leads Activities Of Girls In Scout Troop 5

Handicraft is foremost in the activities of Troop Five, Girl Scouts, this month.

With Christmas coming on, the children are busy making ornaments for their Christmas tree. At their meeting last Tuesday in the Peoria street firehouse, the girls designed badges and worked on block prints.

A birthday celebration and an investiture ceremony will feature the meeting of Tuesday, November 25.

Com. Hospital MD's Quick Action Saves R. C. Man's Life

Presence of mind on the part of a daring young Community hospital physician was credited with saving the life of a nearly dead Redwood City cabinet maker last week.

The doctor, whose name was withheld because of medical and hospital ethics, performed an on-the-spot penknife operation on George Cartwright, 33. The incision was made as the man, choked almost to death by a pressure on his windpipe, was being wheeled into the hospital from an ambulance.

Noting the fatal blue palor of the man on the stretcher, the young physician whipped out his pocket penknife; plunged it deep into Cartwright's throat, allowing life-giving air to flow into the tortured man's lungs. Almost immediately, the death-like color left the patient's hands and face.

Dr. Harold Marks, hospital superintendent, commended his staff doctor for the successful tracheotomy as Cartwright, breathing normally, began his recovery.

According to Cartwright's mother, Mrs. Anna Stevens, 308 Santa Maria avenue, Redwood City, the patient had complained of a sore throat on the morning of the operation.

On his way to work at the B and B Termite Co., he stopped at the office of a local practitioner and was given a dose of penicillin for what was diagnosed as a "strep" throat.

According to Dr. Marks, the ambulance was called several hours later when Cartwright was seized with convulsions while at work.

A swelling in his throat — still undiagnosed by hospital physicians — had almost completely cut off his air supply.

HIGH SCHOOL TRESPASSERS ARE SOUGHT BY POLICE

Fingerprints on spoons and on the cash register in Jefferson High School's cafeteria are being checked in an investigation of a break-in at the school last week end.

Police were notified Monday by school authorities that trespassers or would-be burglars had broken into the school lunchroom through the south door, and into the kitchen and candy storeroom. Nothing was found missing.

Christmas Party Slated By Members Of Jeff High PTA

Plans for a Christmas party and exchange of gifts were made by the executive board of the Jefferson High School Parent-Teacher Association last Thursday at a meeting at Mrs. Ida Hanley's home.

The party will be held this Thursday at the Hanley home, 43 Woodrow street.

Co-hostesses for the affair will be Mesdames Lillian Thomey, Florence Hopman and Martha Linden.

Schools Close Thurs. and Friday For Thanksgiving

School children of Daly City will enjoy an extra-long week end this week, according to school officials.

High school students will observe Thanksgiving at the big game — the Jefferson - South San Francisco football contest — to be played on the S.S.F. field. Friday will be theirs for recuperating.

The local elementary schools—Woodrow Wilson, Crocker, Jefferson and Pershing — also will close for the two-day holiday.

Students of Our Lady of Perpetual Help parochial school will have the two days off, as well. Mass will be recited at 7:30 and 8 a. m. on Thanksgiving.

Carbon Monoxide May Have Caused Mrs. Holden's Death

Death came last week to Mrs. Elizabeth A. Holden, 41, as she sat in the living room of her home at 117½ Santa Barbara avenue, in Daly City.

Mrs. Holden was found in an upright position in a living room chair last Friday by neighbors who were curious as to her whereabouts after she had not been seen since nearly a week before.

Death was believed to have resulted from either carbon monoxide poisoning or pneumonia, according to Miss Ida Mae Lasswell, deputy coroner, although the exact cause and time of her death could not yet be determined.

The body was discovered by Mrs. C. A. Ruppel, 95 Vendome avenue, who entered the Holden house to investigate her neighbor's well-being. Mrs. Holden had not been seen since the afternoon of Saturday, November 15, when she left work at the City of Paris in San Mateo to visit her physician.

Sergeant Ed Beecher and Officer George Hopman of the Daly City police department answered a frantic call from Mrs. Ruppel and two other neighbors, Mrs. Murphy, and Mrs. Bernice Turner, both of 123½ Santa Barbara avenue. Police found a bottle of medicine on the kitchen table. The house was sweltering and nearly devoid of oxygen as the result of the roaring furnace which apparently had been turned on full force since before the woman's death.

Specimens have been sent to Joseph Swim, toxicologist of the city of San Francisco, to determine the exact cause and time of death. Funeral services were held Saturday afternoon in the chapel of W. C. Lasswell and Co. Interment was in Woodlawn Memorial Park.

Arthur J. Bodien Is Honored By Local Eagles

Arthur J. Bodien, Daly City engineer, building inspector, superintendent of the city water department and member of the San Mateo County Planning Commission, was honored last Thursday night by the Colma - Vista Grande Aerie of Eagles on the 40th anniversary of the local lodge's founding.

The celebration also marked the end of Bodien's 40th year of membership in the lodge, which the honoree helped to organize.

A desk set, gift from the more than 300 members present, was presented to the charter member and past president for "distinguished service throughout a period of 40 years to the Fraternal Order of Eagles, Aerie No. 1848."

In a separate ceremony, a total of 24 new candidates was accepted into membership in the lodge.

"BIG EYE"

The most remarkable chunk of optical glass in the world — the 200-inch mirror for the Palomar Observatory in Southern California — has finally reached its destination atop Palomar Mountain after 12 years of planning, production and polishing.

To the average man this whole project was pretty much "out of this world" for the task of molding a 15-ton slab of glass without the slightest flaw and bringing it within one-millionth of an inch of the specifications staggers the imagination.

Had we been living in the horse and buggy days of transportation, however, it is not likely that the construction of the great mirror would have been undertaken. The reason is that it would have been virtually impossible to move it up the steep mountain except by motor truck. Horses could never have done the job, rail transportation was out of the question, and there was no place for a plane to land on the mountain top even if the scientists had been willing to risk sending their precious cargo by that means. It all shows how progress in one field, such as in the development of highly dependable automotive transportation, aids progress in various other fields.

When it is finally placed in position in the Palomar telescope the "big eye" will peer into the outer space for a distance of one billion light years. A light year, you will remember, is the distance light travels in one year moving at the rate of about 186,000 miles per second.

The great mirror will add enormously to our knowledge of the heavens and it should solve a good many of the mysteries of the universe.

It will bring the "new look" to the field of astronomy.

WAR PROFITS INVESTIGATION

The Senate War Investigating Committee is getting down to its real job now that the Howard Hughes fanfare has passed and the spotlight has been turned on the less glamorous Major General Bennett E. Meyers.

What Meyers lacks in glamor, however, is more than made up in the revelations about his transactions during the war which are alleged to have brought him huge profits. How much is truth and how much is fiction in the charges made against him remains to be seen. But it is clear that the Senate committee has hit upon something that calls for extensive investigation which will probably involve many other persons.

The committee can do a real service by exposing those who illegally profited during the war and having them brought to justice.

USS Maury Is Back From Recent Survey Of Pacific

The USS Maury's back — and she's brought answers to Pacific mysteries with her.

Among other things, the Navy Hydrographic Office's principal ocean survey ship has exploded reports that some previously unknown undersea mountain peak has reared up to endanger San Francisco shipping.

The Maury and her brood of three smaller survey craft is now undergoing routine overhaul at San Francisco Naval Shipyard at Hunter's Point. But before she made the Golden Gate recently, the Maury spent eight months unraveling two mysteries which would interest more San Franciscans than the latest "whodunit."

She charted a large part of Truk atoll, the lush, coral islands in the Western Carolines which had been hidden behind an iron curtain of secrecy since they were mandated to Japan after World War I.

And she made an official search for the alleged shoal area reported by passing ships as lying 400 miles from the Golden Gate and nearly astride this port's main trade lanes.

The reported shoal area presents the bigger mystery.

One report said that some unknown, large mass had been sighted in the trade lanes, and its location "fixed" by navigational means. Another ship reported passing over something in the same location with the ship's fathometer showing only eight fathoms depth. (That's 48 feet deep, and almost shallow enough to be an obstacle to navigation.) The Maury was sent to investigate.

"We received one indication on our echo sounding gear," the Maury's captain, Captain F. D. Hamblin, U. S. Navy, said. "When we were within a mile of the reported location of the shoal, we picked up an echo from a mass about 1600 yards off to one side." (The ship's echo sounding gear sends impulses out parallel to the surface of the water and at a depth of the ship's keel, and measures distances from objects when the impulses are bounced back from a solid mass.)

"We changed course, and started toward it, proceeding slowly. When we were about 400 yards from the object, it disappeared, and we didn't get another echo. We tracked and re-tracked the area, using our fathometers and sounding gear. Covered about five files carefully, and another five miles around the outside of that area. No luck. So I had to report to the Hydrographic Office that the presence of shoal area there is doubtful," the Captain said.

The presence of even large schools of fish, or seaweed, or other marine plant life is not supposed to appear in regular pattern on the signals of the ship's instruments. The effect of whales, or even sea monsters, on the echo gear, he isn't certain about.

urday (November 22) said the Truk atoll survey was interesting because of the comparison between the Maury's surveys and captured Japanese charts of their former Naval stronghold. "We made our own independent surveys, took our soundings, mapped anchorages and marked channels through those coral reefs to the sheltered spots among the islands. Then we compared some of our findings with the collection of Japanese charts, captured throughout the Pacific at the end of the war. There were some differences between their charts of water depths and shorelines and what we actually found," he said, "but in the main their charts were still usable for navigation purposes."

Truk islanders, now living under an American military government, he said were not unfriendly to American sailors who came ashore to set hydrographic signals and various navigation markers. Despite their long years of alliance and intermarriage with the Japanese, they were helpful to the survey party, acting as guides to help place mountain-top markers and showing where Jap caves and fortifications previously existed. The presence of Father Hubbard of San Jose, California, the Glacier Priest of Alaskan exploration fame, on the island may have accounted for some of this feeling, the captain said.

The Maury is expected to return to the huge task of surveying Pacific waters some time in February.

OUR STATE GOVERNMENT

By GEORGE R. REILLY

Together with the initiative and referendum, the recall is one of the most potent weapons in the people's political arsenal.

The recall has been defined as a process by which the people, at their will, may remove an elected official from office before the expiration of his term.

This power is not now in the history of government but its application to state officials in the United States is a comparatively recent development. It was used in ancient Greece and among the early Germanic tribes, while on this continent the colony of Pennsylvania "recalled" its delegates when they refused to sign the Declaration of Independence and sent others in their place.

A major difference between the old recall system and the present system is that formerly representative assemblies did the recalling while now the individual voter does it in the voting booth.

Los Angeles is usually given credit for blazing the trail in the use of the direct recall in the U. S. That city in 1903 adopted a municipal charter containing a recall provision modeled on a Swiss manager type of government, followed the example of Los Angeles.

Not until 1908, when Oregon amended its constitution to make the recall applicable to state officials, was this reform put in on a state-wide basis.

Three years later, on October 10, 1911, California followed suit. Article 23, section 1 of our state constitution, which was adopted on that date, starts out as follows:

"Every elective public officer of the state of California may be removed from office at any time by the electors entitled to vote for a successor of such incumbent, through the procedure and in the manner herein provided for, which procedure shall be known as the recall, and is in addition to any other method of removal provided by law."

It is noteworthy that this section reads "every elective public officer" and therefore includes judges. The inclusion of the judiciary was a point of bitter controversy during the days when progressives throughout the U. S. were campaigning for more direct control by the people over their government.

President William Howard Taft felt so strongly about making judges answerable to the people that he vetoed an act admitting Arizona to the Union because that state's proposed constitution made judges subject to recall. The clause to which Taft objected was removed from the Arizona constitution but in 1912, after the state had been in the Union for a year, it was restored.

Oddly enough Taft, who defended the judiciary so warmly, was to become himself the Chief Justice of the Supreme Court a few years later.

Although others in that day felt with Taft that it was unwise to substitute direct democratic rule for representative institutions, today it is generally recognized that the recall power is not revolutionary but is an extremely useful curb on officials who otherwise might be tempted to neglect or malfeasance.

Griffin - Fellman Nuptials Held In San Francisco

St. Anthony's church in San Francisco was the locale for the wedding of Miss Marian Griffin, of San Francisco, and Raymond Fellman, of Daly City, which took place on Sunday afternoon, November 16.

Father Michaels performed the double ring ceremony in the presence of a large congregation of friends and relatives at 4 o'clock in the afternoon. Mr. John Griffin gave his daughter in marriage.

Marian chose traditional white satin, her gown being designed with a pearl neckline, long sleeves, bouffant skirt, tight bodice and train. Her long veil was held in place with a halo. Orchids and roses made up her cascade bouquet.

As matron of honor Mrs. Bridie Dito donned a winter pink gown fashioned with tight bodice, wide skirt and bishop's collar. Similarly dressed but in winter aqua were the bridesmaids, Misses Barbara Fellman and Patricia McCloon. All

SPORTS REVIEW

Violations of fish and game regulations by 546 California hunters and fishermen last month cost them a total of $25,092, it was announced recently by E. L. Macaulay, chief of the Division of Fish and Game's Bureau of Patrol.

The errant sportsmen also spent an aggregate of 794 days in jail as a result of arrests by fish and game wardens, with four deer hunters receiving the maximum $500 fine as well as jail penalties.

Most common violation listed in the Bureau's monthly report was failure of 54 hunters to fill out deer tags. Thirty-nine arrests were made for shooting waterfowl after daily closing time, which was set an hour earlier this year by the U. S. Fish and Wildlife Service.

For possessing firearms in a game refuge, 31 hunters were cited by the wardens, while 30 arrests were made for hunting or fishing with spotlights. Embracing 73 types of violations, the Bureau's October report includes an arrest for taking undersized frogs, and one each for killing a seagull, and wasting fish.

California judges were not as tough on the fish and game law offenders as in October, 1946, when 636 violators were fined $31,000. The same month in 1945 cost 256 war-time hunters and fishermen $9,765.

First regulatory powers meeting of the California Fish and Game Commission for 1947 will be held in San Francisco January 9 and 10, it was announced today by Lee F. Payne, president.

Proposals of Division of Fish and Game officials and sportsmen concerning fishing seasons and regulations for the coming year will be heard, with the Commission taking final action at a meeting in Los Angeles January 30 and 31.

Possible 12-month open season on the taking of spiny rayed fish in certain areas will probably be discussed. Sportsmen's groups have urged year-round fishing for black bass, bluegill and sunfish in limited districts. Such an action would undoubtedly relieve seasonal pressure on California's overfished trout streams, Payne said.

girls wore wreaths of fuschia cyclamen in their hair and carried bouquets of cyclamen and bouvardia.

Bestman duties were performed by Rudolph Fellman Jr. Seating the guests were John Domecus and Ed Briseno. All wore tuxedos.

At 8 o'clock that evening a reception for 250 guests was held at the Polish hall, 22nd and Shotwell streets. An orchestra furnished music for dancing. A sumptuous buffet was served, including pieces of a lovely four-tier wedding cake made by the bridegroom's mother, Mrs. Rudolph Fellman.

The couple honeymooned in Los Angeles and are now making their home at 50 Bismark street.

Raymond, son of Mr. and Mrs. Rudolph Fellman, 110 Bismark street, was graduated from Jefferson Union High school, class of '40, and served with the Army three years, two overseas. At the present time he is working with his father in the Fellman Roofing business.

Marian is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Griffin, 151 Peralta street.

For the first time since 1910, California trappers will be able to take advantage of an open season on golden beaver, set by the Division of Fish and Game between November 15 and February 25 for the Central Delta region only.

Although limited beaver trapping has been authorized under special permits for several years, protests from Delta ranchers and an increase in beaver population this year justify the open season. Division officials estimate that approximately half the 2,000 beavers in the control area will be taken.

Embracing 1200 miles of inland waterways, the beaver trapping area forms a rough geographical triangle bounded by Sacramento, Vallejo, and Tracy. Two pelt inspection stations will be maintained until March 12 at 1019 Front street, Sacramento, and 420 South Lincoln street, Stockton.

Division of Fish and Game regulations applicable to the special season include: each pelt must be inspected by a Division employee; currently licensed trappers must secure special beaver permits; each pelt must be tagged; and all previous beaver trapping permits are invalid.

General approval of the use of mobile radios in apprehending fish and game law violators during the deer and duck hunting seasons just ended was voiced at a day-long conference of California Division of Fish and Game wardens and officials.

Sixty-two delegates heard testimonials on the increased efficiency of patrol work made possible by car-to-car, car-to-airplane, and car-to-office transmitters. The Fish and Game Division is now equipped with 30 two-way sets.

E. A. Hosmer, chief of the Communications Division, State Department of Finance, told the group of plans for state-wide cooperation by all radio-equipped public agencies to cut down expenses. He cited the use of Redding's low frequency station KRRE by both forestry and fish and game divisions as an outstanding example of radio cooperation.

THANKSGIVING

Enter into His gates with thanksgiving,
And into His courts with praise,
Be thankful unto Him and bless His name,
For the Lord is gracious; his mercy is everlasting.
And his truth endureth from generation to generation.

This is the day set aside by our nation for the offering of thanks to God for the blessings bestowed upon us through the year.

It is not a new holiday; there is nothing original in our observance of Thanksgiving Day, 1947. It is merely a re-affirmation of the days past, when the citizens of the United States gave thanks to their Creator for their free heritage.

Thanksgiving has been observed in this country each year since 1621, when the colonists of Plymouth celebrated their salvation from a hard winter with a good harvest brought by a favorable summer.

From Plymouth the holiday custom spread to other colonies, where each governor in turn issued a Thanksgiving proclamation, making the day a calendared event.

A general proclamation for a day of thanks was issued by President George Washington in the year 1789. In the same year, the first Thursday in November was set aside by the Protestant Episcopal Church as the annual day of thanks. The Roman Catholic Church formally recognized the day in 1888.

The holiday was not a national holiday, however, until 1864, when President Abraham Lincoln, acting on the request of Sarah Josepha Hale, editor of Godey's Lady's Book, proclaimed:

"The last Thursday of each November shall be reserved, hereafter, as a day dedicated to Thanksgiving."

This day, Thanksgiving, 1947, is not a national legal holiday — the United States observes no legal holidays—but it is reserved by almost every state in the nation as the time for America to offer her thanks to God for her good harvest.

False Alarm Brings Youngster Plenty of Trouble

Another local youngster learned the hard way last week that those little red boxes on street corners are out of the realm of playthings.

This time it was a nine-year-old boy who brought Daly City's volunteer firemen out on the job — only to be turned back from another false alarm.

The child's parents paid a $15 penalty to help defray the cost to the city.

News Notes From S. M. Jaysee

With Lynn Lockett of San Bruno as editor, the staff of the San Mateo Junior College yearbook is hard at work getting pictures taken of fall activities for publication in June. Pictures of 300 graduates-to-be have already been taken and the work is only started.

Complete success was the verdict which greeted the production of the term play, "Holiday," three evenings last week. The well-trained and capable cast presented the comedy in a delightful manner, while the outstanding sets, planned and made by students, added to the success of the production.

The college men's glee club recently presented programs at Jefferson Union High school for an assembly and at the San Mateo High school. The college music department will present a Christmas program for the general public December 15.

This Friday the Junior College grid men entrain for San Bernardino where they will play the jaysee Saturday night in the closing game of the 1947 season. Murry Nackord, San Carlos; Frank Robinson, South San Francisco; Charles Welch, San Carlos; Bob Bower, Palo Alto; Monk Cozard, Ted Hovig, Redwood City; Don Speckman, Don Johnson, Belmont; Melvin Nunes, Sunnyvale, and Doug Richardson, Los Altos, are some of the boys making the trip, with Coaches Murius McFadden and Lee Bissett.

Meanwhile the basketball squad is getting into its season with a 46-40 win over the Golden Gate Athletic Club. December 5 it plays the Spillers Oilers in the college gym. The college women have had two sports days, one with San Francisco jaysee and one with San Jose State College, both being at the Coyote Point campus.

What a Lunch!

By BETTY BARCLAY

When there's frost in the air and out-of-door sports call for hale and hearty stick-to-the-rib foods, here's a pudding that is a pudding. Served hot or cold, it's delicious to top off a good dinner. And what an addition it makes to a box lunch for school or the autumn fishing or camping trip! It's spicily seasoned and deliciously seasonable — for just this time of year.

Raisin-Nut Spice Pudding

1½ cups water
½ teaspoon salt
2 to 4 tablespoons brown sugar
¼ teaspoon cinnamon
¼ cup raisins
½ cup wheat-meal
2 tablespoons chopped walnut meats

Place water, salt, sugar, cinnamon, and raisins in deep saucepan. Bring to a boil; add cereal slowly, stirring constantly. Bring again to a boil and cook and stir 3 minutes. Add walnut meats. Serve hot or cold with cream. Makes 3 or 4 servings.

To serve cold, turn into individual custard cups and chill. Unmold before serving.

RETURN OF COLORS—As the guard executes a snappy salute, General Jacob L. Devers (left), commander of the Army Ground Forces, presents colors of the 79th ("Cross of Lorraine") Infantry Division, to Brig. Gen. Robert W. Wilson of Philadelphia, present commander of the division, now a part of the Organized Reserves. Similar scenes are being enacted throughout the country in connection with Armistice Day as colors, flags and battle honors are formally returned to more than 1,600 ground and service-type units of the Organized Reserve Corps.

Paper Rugs

One of the possibilities of the future is the use of paper rugs. The secret, of course, is a flexible plastic. Gay colors, durability, waterproofness, stay-putness, and ease of cleaning are mentioned as other advantages. The material may have other uses, including coverings for furniture.

Protects Potatoes

DDT kills all insects that infest potatoes, including the potato aphid, leaf hopper, flea beetles and potato beetle. It may be mixed with a fungicide to give complete protection with one application.

Removing Fat

Often soup stock or gravy is too greasy and there is not time to cool it so the congealed fat can rise to the top. Wrap a couple of ice cubes in a small piece of cheesecloth and run over the top of the soup or gravy. The excess fat will collect on the cold surface of the cloth and thus can be removed easily.

Crocker Cleaners Will Open Doors Saturday, Dec. 12th

The Crocker Cleaners, one of the largest, most modern cleaning establishments in central California, will open its doors for business Saturday, December 12.

Samuel Jacobson, manager and one of the store's three proprietors, said last week that the mammoth building, located at the corner of Crocker and Mission streets, will be open for inspection by the public on that date. Herman Wachter and Harry S. Jacobson are included in the partnership.

New machinery — some so modern that it is still in the blueprint stage — has been installed in the plant to insure a quality of service unsurpassed in this vicinity, Jacobson said.

Cleaning tanks, steamers and pressers are equipped to process every fabric in an individual manner.

Skilled workers with years of experience in the trade, the manager said, already have been hired to give customers the best service possible.

Jeff High P.T.A. Report Bazaar As Financial Success

Mrs. Eve Hobbs, president of the Jefferson High School Parent-Teacher Association, has issued a hearty thanks to all those members and merchants who helped to make the P.T.A. bazaar last Friday a financial success.

The bazaar, held in the Masonic temple, was staged to raise funds for the association's student fund. Needlework, rummage and home cooked foods were featured in the sales booths, while luncheon was served to scores of hungry patrons. A "wishing well" and "white elephant" table drew customers galore.

The bazaar was the first ever sponsored by the high school P.T.A.

Those members receiving special thanks from Mrs. Hobbs were Mesdames Albert D'Isep, Millie McGeein, Katherine Foreman, Frances Hausler, Betty Kohlbrenner, R. L. Crane, Stanford Hannah, Ida Hanley, Olga Bardson, Anne Eason, Martha Linden, Lillian Cavenaro, Carol Freeland, Tina Hollingsworth, Jack Morris, Lillian Thomey, Vivian Pahlka and Lyle Ingersol. Colonial Cottage

The arrangement of the plan in this colonial cottage eliminates the use of rooms for halls and creates a feeling of spaciousness in the combined rooms. Generous storage wall closets have been provided and the garage offers ample room for storage and family hobbies. Household chores are made easy because of the automatically equipped kitchen-laundry. Radiant floor heating is the answer to the "Cold Floor" problem in this home.

Dwelling shown above is a photograph of a scale model of a "cut-out" home which can be obtained from House Beautiful Magazine for $2.00. The model is easily assembled, and gives the prospective home builder an actual model of the home he plans to build, complete with "cut-out" furniture.

By studying the scale model, the prospective builder is enabled to determine what changes he deems necessary before the house is actually built, thereby saving needless expense.

Smooth Bromegrass

Smooth bromegrass is useful in combination with alfalfa or clover as pasture or hay. On rotation land this bromegrass-legume combination must be plowed down for row crops while still highly productive. Otherwise bromegrass may use all available nitrogen. Bromegrass is palatable, leafy, drought resistant, a good sod-former and gives high forage yields.

Hot Potatoes

The best way to serve all potatoes is quick-cooked and steaming hot, for the longer they stand exposed to the air the more vitamin C they lose.

Petitions Are Being Circulated For Third Party

A total of 14 names of Daly City residents has been solicited thus far on a petition to add a third party to the California ballot.

According to Mr. and Mrs. Donald Clark, 6925 Mission street, agents for the petition, a minimum of 275,970 registered voters' signatures must be filed with the secretary of state by February 26 of next year to bring action on the matter.

The Independent Progressive Party of California, formed this year by approximately 500 "independent" voters, puts forth as its platform:

1. Peace through the United Nations.
2. Labor's rights and all civil liberties.
3. Security for small farmers.
4. Equality for all without discrimination.
5. Protection against the hazards of old age, sickness and unemployment.
6. Control of the monopolies and trusts. End their grip on the country's economic and political life.
7. Planning — to end 'boom and bust' policies.

More than a half million new horsepower from giant steam electric plants will be added in 1948 to this company's interconnected electric system of both hydro and steam powerhouses.

The first big block of additional power is scheduled to come on the lines in the spring of 1948, from the new Kern Steam Plant near Bakersfield. This steam-electric plant, costing $25,600,000, will generate 235,000 horsepower of electricity.

In the fall of 1948, an additional 298,000 horsepower will come from Station "P" Steam Plant at Hunters Point on San Francisco Bay. This is a $23,700,000 construction project that will increase the plant's present generating capacity from 62,000 to 360,000 horsepower.

Elsewhere on our system the company is driving ahead on other projects—hydro plants, gas lines, substations, transmission lines, etc.—an expansion of facilities that will cost a total of $350,000,000.

This huge construction program was started with a rush as soon as the war was over to meet and keep ahead of the growing demands for gas and electricity in Northern and Central California.

By 1951 P. G. and E.'s electric power capacity will exceed 3,500,000 horsepower and provide our customers with one of the greatest regional power pools in the Nation.

SEVENTEENTH DISTRICT CCPT HEAR SPEAKERS FROM STATE CONGRESS

Seventeenth District California Congress of Parents and Teachers was fortunate in having two guest speakers from the state congress for the November meeting held at Jefferson Union High school in Daly City on Thursday, November 20.

"It's a Wise Parent" was the topic discussed by Mrs. Robert Bogen, parent education chairman, CCPT. "How are your children going to learn how to meet all situations, to do the most with what they have?" asked Mrs. Bogen. "Attitudes toward other people and their problems are formed in the home. We must teach them that new situations and problems are a challenge," she continued.

State music chairman, Mrs. Nancy Pauline Turner, spoke on the "Technique for Living." "Study to keep abreast of what is going on. Have a quality of enthusiasm and realize that the Parent Teacher Association is the biggest organization in the world working for one purpose, the welfare of children and youth in home, school, church, and community," said Mrs. Turner.

The Jefferson Union High school band under the direction of King Stevens played "Spirit of the Sioux," "Lester Guthrie," "Fighting Irish," "Frederick Griggs," "Operatic Mingle," arranged by E. W. Berry, and "March of the Trojans," Bus-rick. Six drum majorettes did a routine with the band.

Mothersingers of Jefferson school district were introduced by Mrs. F. T. Peterson, district music chairman. Under the direction of Mrs. E. B. Ochander they sang "Luxemburg Garden," Manning; "Still Is the Night," Carl Bohm, and "Onward Ye People," Jean Sibelius.

Mrs. M. G. Strohmeier presided for the business session. Recommendations of the executive board (1) that the amount up to ten dollars be allowed for films for the El Portal children, and (2) to purchase some rhythm instruments for the rhythm band for the sight saving class, were passed.

A committee composed of Mrs. J. J. Sherwood, Mrs. J. E. Dermody, Mrs. L. G. Evans, and Mrs. U. S. Mitchell, was appointed to plan the Christmas party for El Portal school.

New district social hygiene chairman, Mrs. Clemens Friedell jr., was introduced. Mrs. Roy N. Cloud, health director, called attention to the election for the formation of a Peninsula hospital district and urged all to vote.

Advisory board members introduced were Pansy Jewett Abbott, county superintendent of schools, and Miss Clara Dills, county librarian. A district membership of 7,489 to date was reported by Mrs. William Bohn, membership chairman. Mrs. F. H. Weisman, citizenship chairman, led the pledge of allegiance. A greeting to the district was given by Stanford Hannah, district superintendent and principal of Jefferson Union High school. Forty-six units answered roll call.

In charge of arrangements and chairman for the day was Mrs. S. S. Mayo, director of the department of education. Luncheon was served in the school cafeteria. The tables were decorated by Mrs. L. G. Evans, district hospitality chairman, and Mrs. Eve Hobbs, president of Jefferson Union High unit. Place cards were prepared by the art students of the school.

Legion Auxiliary Make Preparation For Xmas Party

Preparations for a children's Christmas party were started last Wednesday by the Daly City American Legion Auxiliary at a meeting in the Legion hall.

The party is slated for some time in December.

The sum of $35 was allocated for donation to the gift shop at the Palo Alto veterans' hospital. Other donations ratified during a brief business session included $5 to the Community Chest and two cartons of cigarettes monthly to the veterans' hospital.

Murder Charge Issued Last Week Against War Bride

A formal murder charge against 20-year-old Jadwiga Curtin, Polish war bride, and her erstwhile companion, Howard Durham, was issued last week by the office of the district attorney.

The complaint, signed by Deputy District Attorney Fred Wycoff, charged the pair with the murder of George W. Conner, 25, Palo Alto war veteran, in a woods near the Stanford campus last October 15.

The charge was regarded as a response to an attempt by Mrs. Curtin's attorney to obtain her release from jail on a robbery charge with a writ of habeas corpus.

Mrs. Curtin had been charged with the robbery of George Caulfield, 23, Stanford student, on October 12. Durham, also charged with the robbery, has been out on bail for the last few weeks.

A warrant for Durham's re-arrest on the murder charge was sworn out by Walter Moore, chief deputy sheriff. Moore said Durham also was charged with the murder, although he had been arrested earlier on a drunk and disorderly conduct charge and was in jail at the time of the killing.

Funds Solicited For T.B. Association

Cans for contributions to the San Mateo County Tuberculosis and Health Association were distributed to various stores, shops and cafes last week by 20-30 Clubs throughout the county.

The campaign is a special Christmas project to provide funds for the treating of heart diseases and rheumatic fever in children of the county.

Alex Cordes, general chairman of the project, said the campaign for funds will be coincidental with the annual Tuberculosis Christmas Seal sale which started Monday, November 24.

Wheels and Brakes

When new automobile tires are installed, wheel balance should be checked by an expert, says the California State Automobile Association. This is also a good time to check the condition of brake lining and the brake system in general.

Gen. Pershing PTA "Country Store" Opens December 2

On Tuesday, December 2, a Country Store will be open in the General Pershing school, 631 Hanover street, with store hours from 3 to 5 p. m. and 8 p. m. Mrs. Abe Gensel, general chairman, says that the stock of merchandise will be high in quality and quantity.

Booth chairmen are sewing, Mrs. Abe Gensel and Mrs. Jack Caine; home-made cakes and cookies, Mrs. Drew Eason; white elephant, Mrs. C. C. Bloom and Mrs. Steve Holcomb; home-canned goodies, Mrs. F. M. Bauer, and Mrs. V. M. Faragher; Christmas cards, Mrs. V. M. Faragher.

Many items just right for gifts and holiday enjoyment will be available among the hand-painted blouses, hand-made embroidered dish towel sets, hand-made sweaters, aprons, pajamas, shirts, home-made cakes, cookies, jams, jellies, fruit and vegetables. Of course some one else's white elephant may be just the answer to another's need.

The Country Store will be preceded by the regular monthly meeting of the General Pershing PTA at 1:30 p. m. Miss Clara Dills, county librarian of Redwood City, will give a seasonal reading. Miss Dills is quite well known for her readings. The Christmas party for the school children will be discussed, and other holiday activities planned.

More Power and Mileage

Motor tune-up at regular intervals not only insures easier starting of the car in cold weather, but also gives more power and better gasoline mileage.

OFF THE BLOTTER

Everything from lost pups to auto-pedestrian accidents were handled by the Daly City police department last week.

A five-month-old puppy, with black body and brown legs, was brought to the police station by a local resident into whose home the lost mongrel had wandered. The pup, which stood about 16 inches high, was delivered to the pound.

Jack Alleian, 12 years old, of 75 Gambetta street, received minor injuries when he was struck by a car while in pursuit of a football in front of 6860 Mission street.

The boy was taken to the Junipero Serra hospital by Peter Giusso, 2888 16th street, driver of the car.

Local police officers responded to a burglary call Thursday at San Jose and Plymouth avenues, in San Francisco. The police were summoned by Charles Vernengo, who reported that $40 in coins and an amount of cigarettes had been stolen from his place of business between the hours of 10 p. m. Wednesday and 7:30 a. m. Thursday.

Dolwig Appoints Committee To Study Court Rules

Floyd D. Granger Advises Vets

Floyd D. Granger, Veterans Service Officer today reminded veterans of World War II that the reemployment rights which they are guaranteed by the Selective Service Act are not limited to initial reemployment but include protection of rights after reinstatement.

Reemployment provisions of the federal law, which are still in effect even though the Selective Service System itself has been liquidated, provide that a reinstated veteran may not be discharged except for cause during a period of one year, and he is entitled to all seniority, vacation and other rights which he enjoyed prior to entering the service.

Mr. Granger is serving as Reemployment Rights Committeeman for this area by appointment of the U. S. Department of Labor, which is now administering reemployment functions formerly exercised by the Selective Service System.

Veterans who are experiencing difficulties in connection with seniority, discharge before expiration of the statutory one year period, vacation benefits, demotions or other loss of rights or benefits to which they are entitled are invited to call at the Veterans Service Office, located at the Court House in Redwood City.

Those who have been unable to obtain reinstatement to positions held prior to the war should first contact the local office of the Caliifornia State Employment Service. A veteran unable to obtain reemployment through this means should then call at the Veterans Service Office for further action in the case.

Cow Numbers
Milk cow numbers have been going down at a faster rate in North Dakota than in the nation as a whole. The number at the beginning of 1946 was 91 per cent of the previous year and 95 per cent of the longer time average. For the United States the reduction in 1946 was about 4 per cent below last year.

Woolen Blankets
Blankets must contain at least 25 per cent wool to make a noticeable difference in fluffiness and warmth.

Sweet Potatoes
Sweet potatoes are a highly nutritious food, containing starch, protein, iron and vitamins A, B and C. As a source of energy, protein, mineral, thiamin and vitamin C, sweet potatoes compare favorably with Irish potatoes and, as a source of vitamin A, they are much superior.

Toad Frog Valuable
Each common toad frog is said to be worth at least $7.50 annually to farmers because of the harmful insects it eats.

This represents about 15 per cent of the 210,000 registered housing as occurred in Hawaii two years ago, earthquake, fires or explosions. It is known that the Hawaii disaster was caused by disturbances under the ocean which could occur on our coastside. Ten million dollars was the cost to Red Cross for disaster up to this month in 1947 throughout the United States and IT COULD HAPPEN HERE!

Regular meetings of the Transportation and Communications Committee are held each year and every community in the county is represented. Transportation plans and resources are checked to make sure they are fully prepared to meet any disaster or emergency which might occur.

units subject to rent control in the area.

When allowances are made for defective leases which were registered by the area rent office, the net total of cleared leases plus those whose review is pending amounts to about 14.5 per cent of the number of registered rental units in the area.

Throughout the nation the number of leases cleared plus those whose review was pending on October 31, 1947, was 1,350,000, or about 8½ per cent of the number of registered rental units in the nation.

Leases filed in the area rent office are those entered into voluntarily by landlords and tenants agreeing to increase rents up to 15 per cent in accordance with provisions of the Housing and Rent Act of 1947. Such leases must be signed on or before December 31, 1947, and must run at the agreed-upon rent at least through December 31, 1948. Housing accommodations affected by these leases are not subject to maximum rent provisions of the rent act after December 31, 1947.

Spoils Decrease

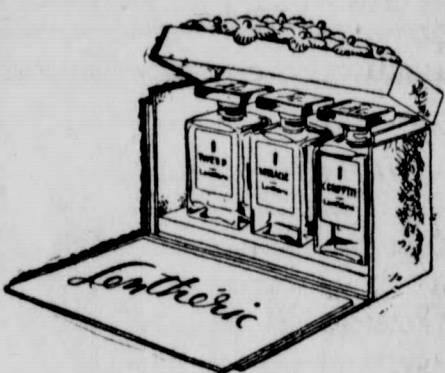

Counterfeiters cheated the American public out of only $48,000 in 1942, compared with spoils of $771,000 per year between 1933 and 1936, according to the Encyclopaedia Britannica. A counterfeit bill often can be detected by comparing it with a genuine bill of the same denomination, paying special attention to the quality of the portrait, which is usually fine in a genuine bill. Counterfeit coins usually feel greasy or slippery.

Worshipped Cabbage

Cabbage has been a popular vegetable ever since 2000 B. C. when it was said to have been worshipped by the Egyptians.

Binding Meat Loaf

Although a thick white sauce is generally preferred for binding together the ingredients of meat loaf, meat patties and similar mixtures eggs may be used successfully for this purpose, provided the meat cooks at medium rather than high temperature.

"Magic On Ice" Closes December 7 At Geary Theatre

A special ice rink has been installed on the stage of the Geary theater, San Francisco, to accommodate "Magic On Ice," a real play on ice, which will close its San Francisco engagement on Sunday night, December 7.

The rink, or 'tank,' has 18 sections weighing approximately 200 pounds each and consisting of many laid sections of pipe.

"Magic On Ice" comes as an innovation in the way of ice entertainment. It is not the conventional ice revue but a complete play on ice, executed in pantomime and ballet. The story was written by Jack Roberts, based upon an original idea by Val Raset.

Jann "Twinkle Toes" Lee heads the large cast of 50 skating artists, including ViVi-Anne Houlten, ten times Swedish skating champion, and Gene Tesloff, former Sonja Henie partner.

Lavish scenery, colorful costumes and special lighting are but one of the many features of "Magic On Ice."

Matinees are scheduled for Saturdays and Sundays.

Halley's Comet

Halley's comet has been tracked back to 240 B. C. The appearance of this comet in A. D. 1066 is recorded on the Bayeux tapestry. The comet was named for Edmund Halley, the first astronomer to establish the fact of a comet's periodic return.

Washing Walls

Washing the extra dirty walls will be half the work if you use two pots of suds, two cloths—one for the worst film, one for the second going over.

Freshen Ties

Ties that are not too soiled may be freshened by sponging with cleaning fluid or with a cloth dampened in water. If ties are worn where they are knotted at the neck, and are long enough, they may be shortened by taking a half inch piece out of the seam at the center back. This will bring the worn place under the collar.

THE PILGRIMS

In their search for a new life and liberty the pilgrims landed at Plymouth on Dec. 21, 1620. Their faith in the future enabled them to surmount hardships and in forging new homes out of the wilderness the pilgrims displayed the qualities on which America was founded.

At this season of the year, just as the Pilgrim Fathers did for the first time in 1621, we give thanks for the blessings of the past, and wish you a bountiful future.

Army, Air Force Offer Choice To All New Recruits

With the emphasis on education, the U. S. Army and the U. S. Air Force today are backing up their common recruiting slogan, "careers with a future," by offering volunteers a choice of training in over 200 skills and trades.

Both of these services are stressing their technical school programs, whose provisions give high school graduates the chance to select their own field of interest before they enlist. Upon enlistment, the men are guaranteed the schooling they have requested as soon as they complete their basic training.

The Army also features a Potential Leaders' school, for which new enlistees displaying qualities of leadership are singled out. This intensive course, participants in which are not only instructed but are trained to instruct others themselves, teaches the embryo soldiers leadership and qualifies them for rapid advancement.

The United States Armed Forces Institute, open to members of all the Services, has a record of no less than 1,750,000 men in uniform who have taken USAFI standard text, self-teaching text and correspondence courses. Many of them have earned high school and college credits in a wide range of study courses.

The Army and the Air Force believe these combined educational facilities represent "the greatest school on earth." Because they want their men to be the best educated soldiers on earth, their claim to the title seems well justified.

"FASHIONS OF THE TIMES"

"FASHIONS OF THE TIMES" are changing. The younger set will go feminine, as witnessed in the fuller, longer dirndl skirt with Gibson Girl blouse at the left, designed by Carolyn Schnurer. The skirt is of shocking pink wool striped in blue, white, and black, the blouse of pink cotton. The white piqué tennis dress at the right shows longer fuller shorts, but adds the new jutting collar. Inset shows Mme. Andrée's big polka dot straw sailor, preview of next Spring. All 135 costumes paraded in this two-act revue, presented Oct. 28-31 by The New York Times, stressed the new feminine look.

What kind of a Christmas present is that?

"Why on earth should I give Fred this—this—piece of machinery for Christmas?" I said. "Anyway, what is it?"

The salesman looked hurt. "Madam," he said, "it so happens that this 'piece of machinery' is one of the finest outboard motors in the world. Does your husband like to cruise? Does he like to fish?"

Well—you know Fred.

So I decided I ought to find out about this thing—the Martin Outboard Motor, it's called.

Of course I can't remember everything the salesman said, but I know the Martin has all these wonderful exclusive features: perfectly lovely poppet valves, and flood-proof something-or-other, and—oh, lots more. And it's really awfully good-looking, for an outboard motor.

So—here I am, a member of the Martin-Motor-for-Christmas Club. It's wonderfully simple . . . you make a modest downpayment and pay the rest on budget terms, and the motor's delivered right to your house just before Christmas. The store even sends a man out to explain how it operates.

Honestly, I can't wait to see Fred's face on Christmas morning. The salesman said if the motor didn't suit him he could return it by January 2nd and get a full refund—but if I know Fred, he'll have it out on the boat before then! As for me . . . I'm going along just to see how those poppet valves work!
